

Ryan Grey Smith

5136 NE 54th Street
Seattle, WA 98105
T/F: 206-524-2223

Education

University of Southern California
Bachelor of Architecture - 1995

Professional Experience

2003-present

Grey Design Studio/Smith Brothers Construction, Partner

1997 – 2003

Chihuly Studio

Seattle Studio:

Managed the Architecture Department at Chihuly Studio. Responsible for architectural coordination of large scale installations including “Chihuly in the Light of Jerusalem” and the Chihuly Bridge of Glass in Tacoma. Designed and supervised renovations of Dale’s own home, the Boathouse.

1994-1997

DMJM Keating Architecture

Los Angeles Office:

45-floor office tower in Jakarta, Indonesia
Samsung Master Plan in Seoul, Korea

Bangkok Office:

10 million square foot transportation/retail complex in the heart of Bangkok

1993-1994 Summer

Angelil Graham Pfenninger Scholl Architecture

Los Angeles Office:

Experimental House, Hollywood Hills, CA

Zurich Office:

Forchbahn Train Station Project: Esslinger, Switzerland

Awards and Exhibitions

2002

Metropolitan Home Magazine, Home of the Year Contest - 2002
Honorable mention – Holder/Smith Residence, Seattle, WA

2001

Flux Gallery, San Diego, CA
An Exhibition of Architectural Art – Chihuly guest house

1995

University of Southern California, School of Architecture
Achievement Award – Best Designer of Graduating Class

1994

Museum of Contemporary Art, Traveling Exhibition
Urban Revisions – opened May 1994 in Los Angeles
Production and design of exhibition pieces for a project in Esslinger, Switzerland

1994

Shinkenchiku Competition - Team member
Awarded 2nd Place and published in Japan Architect

1993

1993 A.I.A./A.C.S.A. International Student Design Competition
First Place in North America; Award presentation in Prague, Czechoslovakia